9. Do you agree that the school, as its social responsibility, should take proactive measures towards this problem by creating awareness amongst its stakeholders i.e. students, teachers (staff) and last but not the least parents?

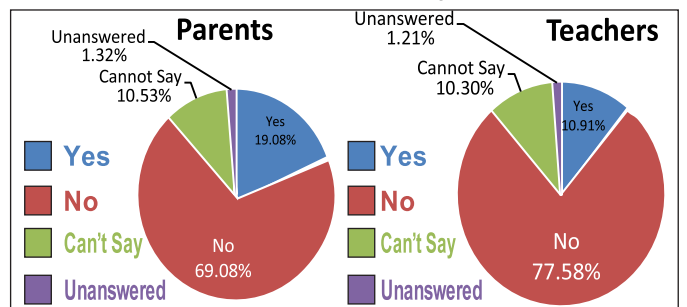

10. Do you agree that the introduction of age appropriate & progressive, awareness cum skill building books for the students as per the Indian ethos, on prevention of child abuse will be a small but revolutionary initiative by a school?

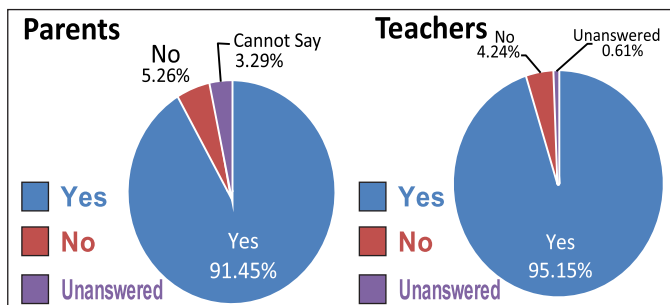

11. Do you agree that the same awareness books should be introduced for boys as well as girls?

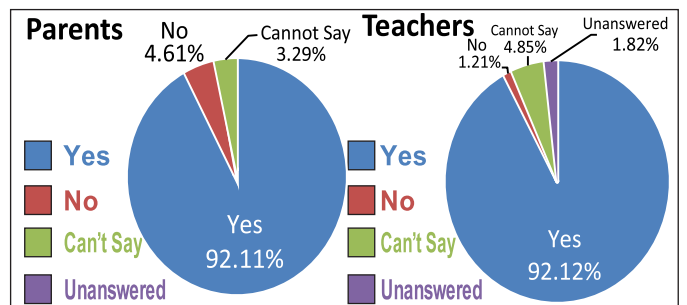

12. Do you believe that talking to children about sexual abuse can harm or spoil them?

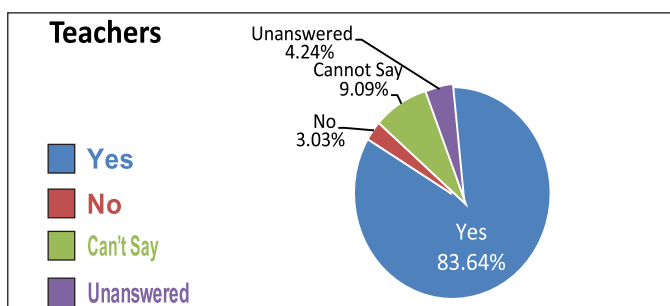

13. Would you like to know more about child abuse and how your child can be protected from it?

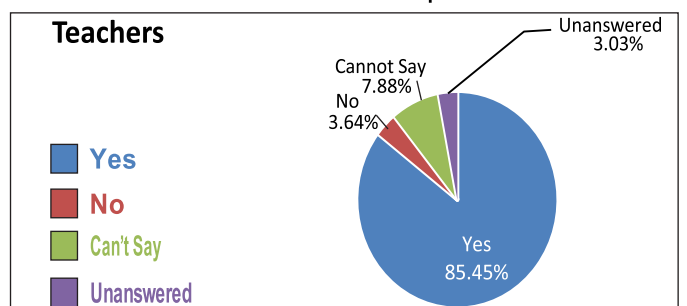

14. Do you agree that companion guideline books for teachers and parents along with students' books will be helpful?

15. Do you agree that the process of introduction of such books should be initiated through school teachers especially counsellors and physical education teachers?

16. Do you agree that a dedicated wall at a prominent place in the school like reception, main gate, amongst others, with suitable information about the issue, will be helpful in generating awareness amongst students, teachers (staff) & last but not the least parents?

17. From which classes do you think that the school should introduce such books?
