

Name _____

Class _____ Roll no. _____

Imagine Peace

A 3-year-old boy Shin was playing with his red tricycle when Hiroshima, a place in Japan, was attacked with a nuclear bomb ironically called 'Little Boy'. Shin died along with approximately 226,000 people. The tricycle now belongs to the Peace Museum in Hiroshima, Japan.

Shin with his elder sister

Complete the following sentences. Compare your answers with those of your classmates. Pin the best answers on your classroom's display board.

- 1) If peace were a colour, it would be _____.
- 2) If peace were an art form, it would be _____.
- 3) If peace were a song, it would be _____.
- 4) If peace were a person, it would be _____.
- 5) If peace were a place, it would be _____.
- 6) If peace were an animal, it would be _____.
- 7) If peace were a season, it would be _____.
- 8) If peace were a feeling, it would be _____.
- 9) If peace were a fruit, it would be _____.
- 10) If peace were a country, it would be _____.
- 11) If peace were an object, it would be _____.

- 1) If war were a colour, it would be _____.
- 2) If war were a person, it would be _____.
- 3) If war were a place, it would be _____.
- 4) If war were a feeling, it would be _____.
- 5) If war were an animal, it would be _____.
- 6) If war were an object, it would be _____.
- 7) If war were a food, it would be _____.
- 8) If war were a sound, it would be _____.
- 9) If war were a country, it would be _____.
- 10) If war were a season, it would be _____.
- 11) If war were a vegetable, it would be _____.